ADORATION AND RECONCILIATION

Come spend time in the presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Eucharistic Adoration is a time for quiet prayer, reflection, thanksgiving, and simply being with Christ.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is also available, offering an opportunity to receive God's mercy, forgiveness, and peace.

Come as you are. He is waiting for you.
El Señor te espera...

ARCHBISHOP GUSTAVO MESSAGE

Our lives are the fruit of God's love. God delights in us. He celebrates our lives and invites us into His own divine joy. God wants us to celebrate with Him and to live in Him. In the Lord Jesus, we are drawn into the Father's gift to the Son and the Son's gift to the Father. That is why every person is worthy of welcome, protection, promotion, integration, and celebration.

From the child in the womb to the elderly person nearing life's end, and even including the worst criminal; every human life is a sacred gift throughout its whole development. We help prepare God's banquet whenever we defend life and honor human dignity. And this is why Sunday Mass is so important. We are not isolated believers. We are the Universal Assembly, the Church gathered around the Paschal Sacrifice of the Incarnate Word. Here the Shepherd spreads the table before us. Here the Lord Jesus strengthens us. This week, accept the invitation anew. Welcome one forgotten person, defend one vulnerable life, and spend time before the Lord.

Bring a picture of your loved one to decorate the altar. Write the name of the family back to the picture.

Please large pictures will not be allowed.

Mensaje del Arzobispo Gustavo

Nuestras vidas son fruto del amor de Dios. Dios se deleita en nosotros. Celebra nuestras vidas e invita a su propia alegría divina. Dios quiere que celebremos con Él y que vivamos en Él. En el Señor Jesús, somos atraídos por el don del Padre al Hijo y el don del Hijo al Padre. Por eso cada persona es digna de bienvenida, protección, promoción, integración y celebración.

Desde el niño en el vientre hasta la persona mayor que se acerca al final de la vida, e incluso incluyendo al peor criminal; toda vida humana es un regalo sagrado a lo largo de todo su desarrollo. Ayudamos a preparar el banquete de Dios cada vez que defendemos la vida y honramos la dignidad humana. Y por eso la misa dominical es tan importante. No somos creyentes aislados. Somos la Asamblea Universal, la Iglesia reunida alrededor del Sacrificio Pascual del Verbo Encarnado. Aquí el Pastor extiende la mesa ante nosotros. Aquí el Señor Jesús nos fortalece. Esta semana, acepta la invitación de nuevo. Recibe a una persona olvidada, defiende una vida vulnerable y pasa tiempo ante el Señor.
